

MASTER OF ADMINISTRATION (Structured – 1817)

D.268 ADMISSION

Unless Senate decides otherwise, candidates will be required to meet the following criteria to be enrolled for the degree/programme: Master of Administration – MAdmin (as indicated in D.271)

D.268.1 Admission to a Master's degree is at the discretion of the department, subject to the general rules of the University. A student who has not taken a research methodology module would also be required to take that module.

D.268.2 Admission Requirements for the MAdmin Industrial Psychology Stream

D.268.2.1 A student must have obtained a pass mark of at least 65% in a recognised Industrial Psychology Honours programme in order to be eligible for selection into the Masters Programme.

D.268.2.2 Students from other Universities, Faculties and/or Departments who have completed an Honours Degree in Industrial Psychology/Organisational Psychology/ Human Resource Management and wanting to pursue a Masters Degree (Industrial Psychology) would have to meet the requirements as stipulated by the Department.

D.268.2.3 Students from other Universities, Faculties and/or Departments who have NOT completed an Honours Degree in Industrial Psychology/Organisational Psychology/ Human Resource Management will not be eligible for entry into the Masters programme.

D.268.2.4 The SAQA credits for all modules in the Masters programme are 20 respectively. The mini-thesis carries a weight of 60 credits. Thus the overall weight for the programme is 160 credits. Students have to pass five (5) modules in total i.e. 3 core modules, plus complete a mini-thesis AND 2 elective modules in order to meet the requirements for a Masters Degree. Students who wish to register as Industrial Psychologists have to complete the three (3) core modules, two (2) electives and a mini-thesis.

D.268.2.5 A student who has not completed and passed a chosen elective at Honours level, will not be allowed to register for that elective in the Masters programme.

D.269 SELECTION

As only a limited number of students can be admitted to the programme, applicants will be subject to a selection procedure.
